Students at Mango Tree School at Congo for Christ, DRC Congo

Just like children in America preparing to return to school, the children at orphanages supported by Global Outreach, also need new school supplies. Most of these little ones need one or two school uniforms, shoes, book bags, as well as paper, pencils and the usual school supplies. Even though our global ministry partners do all they can to keep costs down, they need $25 to $50 per child to meet these expenses for primary students and about $50 to $75 for secondary (high school) students.

Children from Agape Orphanage, Myanmar

As a reminder, here is a list of the children's homes and orphanages you support through your giving to Global Outreach.

- 63 students—Congo for Christ, DRC Congo
- 33 students—Fizi Orphan Centre, DRC Congo
- 276 students—14 Feed My People Homes, India
- 51 students—Agape, Myanmar
- 33 students—House of Refuge, Myanmar
- 8 students—Horizon of Hope, Philippines
- 3 students—Sameong Girls Home, Thailand
- 30 students—*Bethel, Vietnam
- 497 students in 21 children's homes

As you can see, even at a very modest amount of $25 per child, it amounts to over $12,000. When we are unable to supply the required funds, the children have to use their previous year's uniforms, shoes, and book bags. As you can imagine, after a year of use under harsh conditions, the uniforms and shoes are in very poor condition. When possible, the school bags are used for two years. For those children at Congo for Christ who have sponsors, the cost of the back to school supplies is not covered by the monthly sponsorship. Every donation to support these much needed supplies for the children is greatly appreciated!
