

Christmas Pictures and Reports

January 2023

We have received many reports and pictures from Christmas celebrations from our Global Ministry Partners. Many of these reports are focused on evangelistic efforts as they tell us people are more interested in learning about Jesus at Christmas than any other time of the year. Of course, your generous donations also brought much joy and happiness to the nearly 500 orphans that are supported by Global Outreach. We have so many great pictures but can only share a few.

Warm blankets for the children at the Fizi, DRC Congo Children's Home

4,150 children came for Christmas service and lunch at Congo for Christ. They received a piece of candy and a packet of cookies.

Myanmar: House of Refuge children seated in front with neighbors who attended the Christmas service and special meal.

New blankets for the orphans at 14 children's homes in India along with new school uniforms and a special meal for Christmas.

Can you imagine cooking enough rice and beans over an open fire to feed over 4,000 hungry children? The mamas at Congo for Christ work so hard for this weekly program. The older CCC children also help to feed the crowd.

Christmas Pictures and Reports

Myanmar: Heading to a remote mountain region to share the gospel and give rice and oil to Buddhist villagers. More than 250 people attended and 75 prayed to receive Jesus as Savior. The next day in another village, 95 gave their lives to Christ. Richard (pictured below) said the villagers had tears of joy flowing because they were receiving Jesus and the love gifts. We gave $500 for this outreach to six villages.

Vietnam: Gifts given to children as they also share the good news of Jesus.

Bangladesh: Christmas Eve service shown above. Four people gave their lives to Christ and were baptized.

Left: Lots of games and fun for children and adults in the village. A special meal followed.

Everyone sent their thanks and appreciation for the extra funds which made the Christmas celebrations possible. We add our thanks to each of our donors and remind you that your generous, faithful gifts make it possible for us to continue to meet all of the monthly operating expenses. May God richly bless each of you in 2023!
